

Obituary

Think about these following question and write an obituary for your organisation.

What is the vision that drove your organisation?

What impact did it have?

What were the values it held?

How did it help people?
